

A PAGE OF PICTURES THAT PORTRAY HISTORY IN THE MAKING AT HOME AND ABROAD

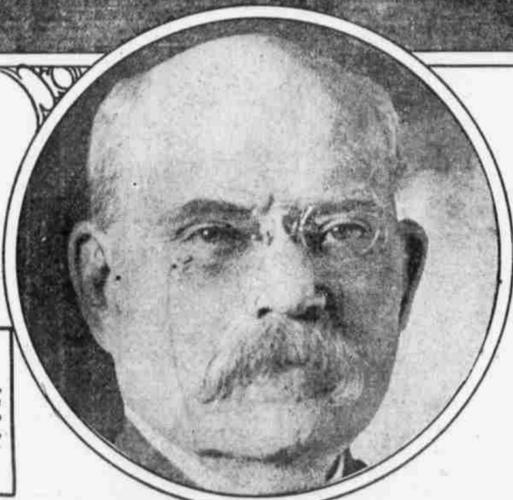

A BIT OF COMEDY LIGHTENS WAR'S TRAGEDY
A French actor-soldier's efforts to amuse his comrades in the interlude between attack and counter-attack are revealed by this official photograph from the western front.

WIDOW GIVES SEVEN SONS TO ALLIED ARMIES
Copyright, American Press Association.
Mrs. William J. Tisdall, in addition to this patriotic sacrifice, further "does her bit" by knitting for the soldiers at her home, 1125 Garden street, Hoboken, N. J.

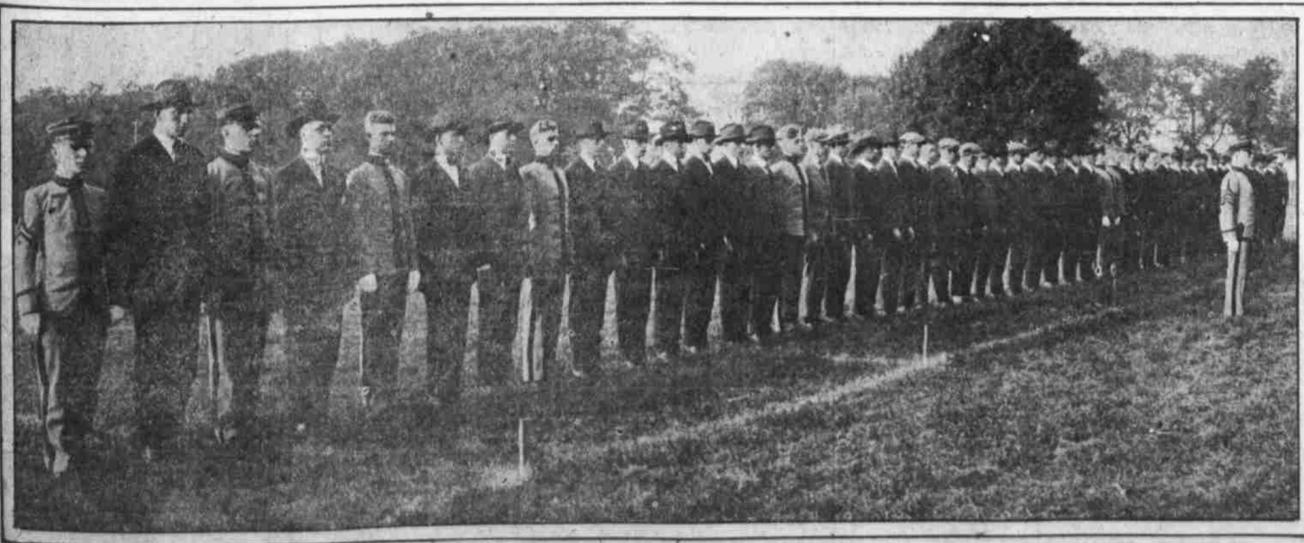

PUBLIC SCHOOL AT WEATHERLY, CARBON COUNTY, WHICH CHARLES M. SCHWAB, STEEL MAGNATE, HAS BUILT AND PRESENTED AS A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF HIS WIFE

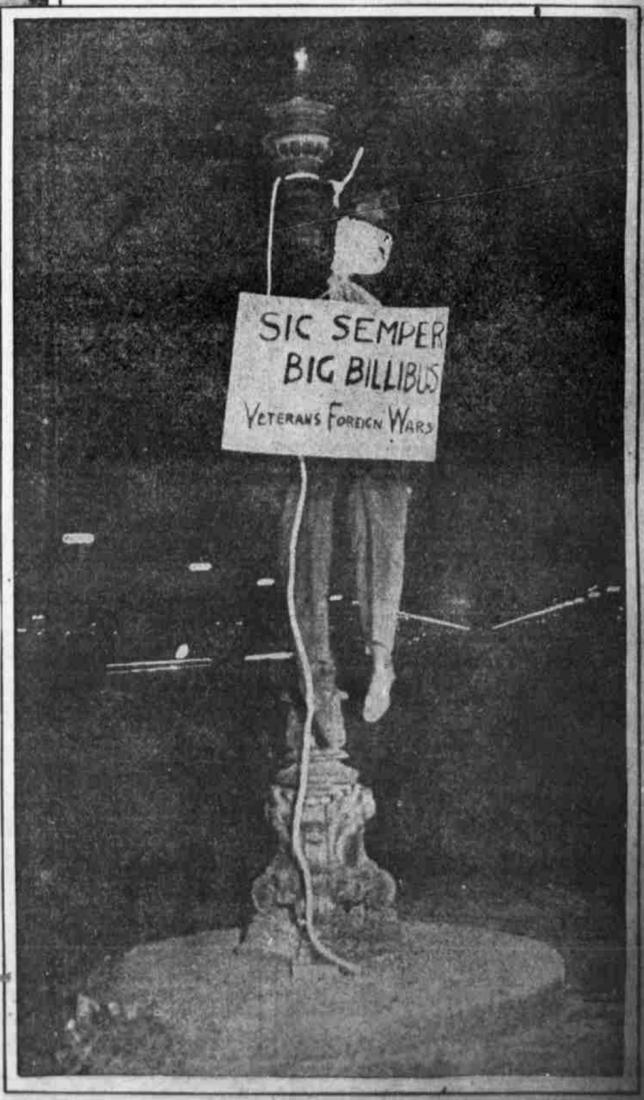

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.
ARMY'S CHIEF OF STAFF
Major General Tasker H. Bliss, a Pennsylvanian and graduate of Bucknell University, who succeeds General Hugh L. Scott, the latter retiring upon attaining the age limit.

Photograph by General Photo Service.
INOCULATING NAVAL WIRELESS PUPILS
Dr. T. M. Kelley, U. S. N., vaccinating students of the Coast Defense Reserve Radio School at its headquarters in the Parkway Building.

CADET ROOKIES AT THE PENNSYLVANIA MILITARY COLLEGE, CHESTER, SOON ADVANCE BEYOND THE AWKWARD SQUAD STAGE
A few more lessons in the setting-up exercises and other army requirements will suffice to enable all the members of this detachment to acquire the martial bearing of the captain who stands in statuesque pose before them.

Photograph by Underwood & Underwood.
"SIC SEMPER BIG BILLIBUS!" CRY ANGRY CHICAGOANS
Citizens of the Illinois metropolis hang Mayor William Hale Thompson in effigy because of his welcome to the pacifist convention.